

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

OF THE

COPE FAMILY.

AS ESTABLISHED IN AMERICA, BY

OLIVER COPE,

WHO CAME FROM ENGLAND TO PENNSYLVANIA ABOUT THE YEAR 1682, WITH THE RESIDENCES, DATES OF BIRTHS, DEATHS AND MARRIAGES OF HIS DESCENDANTS AS FAR AS ASCERTAINED.

PREFACE.

THIS undertaking, which has been a considerable time in progress, is at last concluded, though not so complete as might be desired. Owing to the difficulty in discovering the residences, together with the neglect of many to answer inquiries, and other circumstances, it is almost impossible to obtain a complete record of so large a family. Consequently there is much information wanting, and probably errors in what is given; that from different sources not agreeing, in some cases, on the same point. Still I think it is as near a perfect family record as anything of the kind I have met with, and contains more names, though there are many families whose descendants, if they could be ascertained, would far outnumber the Copes.

It was not thought best to insert much information in regard to the wealth or occupations of the different members of the family, or anything that would tend to a discrimination between them, socially or morally.

I may here offer my thanks to the many who have assisted me by furnishing the records of their own and other families.

The information respecting some branches of the family was obtained near three years ago, and consequently changes may have taken place of which no account is given.

West Chester, Penn'a., 7th mo. 27th, 1861.

William, that was said to be nineteen years older than my father, and several daughters. My father, I believe, was their youngest child, and the time of his birth I am pretty fully informed was in the year 1691, and deceased in the third month, 1773, aged 82 years. He settled in Bradford, I believe, about the year 1712. He was first married when about twenty years of age, but no issue living by the first wife; by the second, six sons and two daughters, being all the children they had, to wit," &c.

Another account furnished me states that "Oliver and Mary" Cope came from England with William Penn upon his second voyage in 1701, and landed at Naaman's creek, near the Delaware shore, where they lived several years.

Another account states that Mary was the name of Oliver's wife, but that they came with William Penn in 1682, and in the same ship.

These statements, differing as they do from each other, are rather unsatisfactory, and in such a case a few facts, based on good authority, are worth more than a large amount of tradition. Presuming, then, that there is but little known concerning Oliver Cope, more than his name, and that he came from England, we will now see what may be found in the public records, written at the time, concerning him.

During the reign of Charles the Second over England, William Penn, a Quaker, wishing to establish a colony in America, where all persons, but more especially the Quakers, might enjoy a freedom of opinion on religious matters, for that purpose obtained a charter from the king. This charter was granted partly in consideration of eminent services rendered to the government by Admiral Penn, the father of William; and by virtue of it, William Penn became the proprietor of the province, which was named Pennsylvania, in honor of his father. The charter was dated the 4th of March, 1681, and in the same year a large number of persons bought land in this province, one of whom was Oliver Cope, as appears by the following:

"This indenture, made the 8th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1681, and in the thirty-third year of the reign of King Charles the Second over England, between William Penn, of Worminghurst, in the county of Sussex, Esquire, on the one part, and Oliver Cope, of Awbry,* in the county of Wilts, tailor, on the other part, witnesseth that the said William Penn, for and in consideration of the sum of five shillings of lawful money of England to him in hand paid by the said Oliver Cope, the receipt whereof he doth hereby acknowledge, hath bargained and sold, and by these presents doth bargain and sell unto the said Oliver Cope the full and just proportion and quantity of two hundred and fifty acres of land, * * * * situate, lying, and being within the province of Pennsylvania," &c., &c. Recorded in Deed Book, vol. 3, page 334. Philadelphia, Pa.

In the month of May, 1682, William Penn sent to Thomas Holme, his Surveyor General, a list of the persons who had purchased land, in order that the same might be surveyed. By this list it appears that Oliver Cope had purchased five hundred acres, which probably included the two hundred and fifty above mentioned.

The early settlers under Penn were mostly Quakers, yet I have never met with any thing to prove that Oliver Cope belonged to the Society, or even any of his children, until many years later, when his son John appears on the records as a prominent member; and a large number of his descendants are members at the present time.

* Abury (sometimes spelled Awbry, Avebury, or Auburn) is an unimportant village in Wiltshire, about eighty-one miles west of London. There are none of the Cope name living in or near it at present, neither does the name occur on the parish register.

That there were some of the name in England who joined the Quakers at an early date will appear from the following, taken from Besse's "Sufferings of Friends."

July 27th, 1662. Rachel Cope, of Berkshire, being at a meeting with nineteen others, was committed to prison. Vol. 1*st, page* 14.

Nov. 6th, 1664. Rachel Cope, with others, being at meeting, were sent to the house of correction for three days. Vol. 1*st, p.* 19.

1669. Richard Cope, of Cambridgeshire, for refusing to bear arms, was distressed of his goods to the value of thirty shillings.

The next account we find of Oliver Cope is in a surveyor's report, which runs thus:

"By virtue of a warrant from y^e^ Governor, dated y^e^ 7th of 5th month, 1683, this may certify that there is a certain tract of land layed out for Oliver Cope, called Backington, situate, lying, and being on y^e^ west side of Delaware river, and on a branch of Naaman's creek: beginning at a corner marked hickory tree standing on y^e^ south side of said branch, being a corner tree of John Buckley's land; thence with said Buckley's line, S. 46° E., 36 perches, to a corner marked red oak, being a corner tree of John Buckley's land, and continuing y^e^ same course, 20 perches, to a corner marked red oak; thence by a line, N. 48° E., 20 perches, to a corner marked white oak, standing by y^e^ side of y^e^ aforementioned branch; thence up y^e^ side of said branch, N. 72° W., 10 perches; N. 43° E., 8 perches; N. 18° E., 18 perches; N. 19° W., 8 perches; W., 10 perches; N. 40° W., 20 perches, to a corner marked chestnut tree standing by y^e^ side of y^e^ said branch; then crossing y^e^ same by a line of marked trees, N. 47° W., 5 perches, to a corner marked red oak; thence by a line of marked trees, N. 62° W., 168 perches, to a corner marked stake; then by a line of marked trees, S. 25° W., 62 perches, to a corner marked stake standing in a line of John Buckley's land; then with y^e^ said Buckley's line, S. 62° E., 180 perches, to y^e^ first mentioned hickory tree; containing and layed out for one hundred acres of land. Surveyed y^e^ 12th of 11th month, 1685–6."

THOS. PIERSON.

That which follows apparently relates to the same land, though not exactly agreeing with the preceding:

"By virtue of a warrant from y^e^ proprietary, dated y^e^ 7th of y^e^ 5th month, 1683, I do, by authority from y^e^ Surveyor General, certify unto y^e^ Secretarys, that there was surveyed y^e^ 12th of y^e^ 11th month, 1685–6, unto Oliver Cope, one hundred acres of land in y^e^ county of New Castle on rent: beginning at a corner marked hickory tree standing on y^e^ south side of a branch of Naaman's creek, being likewise a corner of John Buckley's land; thence with y^e^ said Buckley's line, S. 46° E., 36 perches, to a corner red oak of y^e^ said Buckley's land; thence continuing y^e^ same course 30 perches, thence N. 44° E., 28 perches, to a corner marked white oak standing by y^e^ aforesaid branch; thence up y^e^ several courses of y^e^ same to a corner chestnut tree standing by y^e^ side thereof; thence N. 47° W., 50 perches, to a corner marked red oak; thence N. 62° W., 168 perches, to a corner post; thence S. 25° W., 62 perches, thence S. 62° E., by y^e^ aforesaid John Buckley's land, 180 perches, to y^e^ place of beginning: containing as above is said, which is accordingly entered and recorded in y^e^ Surveyor General's office at Philadelphia, y^e^ 11th of 12th month, 1692–3."

R. LONGSHORE, Dep. Surveyor General.

Another surveyor's report runs thus:

"By virtue of a warrant from the commissioners of property, &c., bearing date the 31st of 8th month, 1691, directed to me, I hereby certify unto the governor's secretary's office that I have surveyed and laid out, the 26th of 9th month, 1691, unto Oliver Cope, a tract of land lying in the manor of Rockland and county of New Castle, beginning at a branch of Naaman's creek, and running by the said Oliver's old line, N. E. by E., 33 perches, to a bounded red oak; then by a line, N. W. ½ W., 30 perches, to a bounded red oak; then by a line, S. W., 63 perches, to a bounded black oak; then S. S. E., 30 perches, to a bounded white oak; then E. N. E. ½ E., 75 perches, to a stake; then N. E. ½ N., 51 perches, to a bounded gum standing by the aforesaid branch; then up the branch to the place of beginning. Surveyed and laid out for thirty acres of land, and is accordingly entered and recorded in my office, this 29th of 9th month, 1691."

HENRY HOLLINGSWORTH.

The next mention of Oliver Cope occurs in a deed by which he conveyed two hundred and fifty acres of land to Robert Pyle, which reads thus:

"Know all men by these presents, that Oliver Cope within named, now residing in the county of New Castle, in the territories of Pennsylvania, for the consideration of one and twenty pounds current money of Pennsylvania, to him paid by Robert Pyle, of Bethel, in the county of Chester, yeoman, the receipt whereof he doth hereby acknowledge, has given, granted, enfeoffed, and by these presents confirmed, unto the said Robert Pyle, all the within mentioned two hundred and fifty acres of land, with the appurtenances; situate, lying, and being in the township of Birmingham, in the said county of Chester; adjoining to Concord township: beginning at a marked white oak standing in Concord line, being the corner of John Buckley's land, and running along the said John Buckley's line of marked trees, west south west, two hundred and forty-four perches, to a marked white oak, and from thence, north north west, one hundred and sixty-four perches, to a marked red oak; thence, east north east, two hundred and forty-four perches, to a marked red oak in Concord line; and from thence, along Concord line, south south east, one hundred and sixty-four perches, to the first mentioned white oak: to have and to hold the said two hundred and fifty acres, and premises, with the appurtenances, butted and bounded as aforesaid by a survey made the eighth of eleventh month, 1684: to the said Robert Pyle and his heirs; to the use of him, the said Robert Pyle, his heirs, and assigns forever, under the yearly quit rent within mentioned," &c.*

This deed was dated the tenth day of December, 1695, and is recorded in Deed Book E., vol. 5, page 323, at West Chester, Pa. Robert Pyle conveyed the same land to his son Robert, by a deed dated in 1734, in which it appears that this was the same land for which Oliver Cope bargained while in England. The location of this tract is given on an old map made at the time, to show where and by whom the land was taken up, for some years from the commencement of the settlement.

It may be interesting to some to know in what manner Oliver Cope bequeathed his property, and as his will gives some additional information in regard to his family, it may not be amiss to insert it here:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Oliver Cope, now of y^e^ countie of New Castle, being weak in bodie but of sound and disposing mind and memory, praised be y^e^ Lord for it, make and ordain this my last will and testament, revoking all others whatsoever heretofore by me made, and do allow of none other but this, * * * hand

* William Penn sold his lands subject to a "quit rent," which was equivalent to an annual tax, and formed the source of his income from his province.

THE COPE FAMILY.

In the following history of our family I have endeavored, as far as possible, to obtain information from reliable sources, and have made use of tradition only when nothing better could be had. I have not been able to trace our ancestry farther back than to Oliver Cope, who came from Wiltshire, England, to Pennsylvania, among the earliest English settlers; bringing, it is supposed, a wife and children. Another child was born some years after, named John, and from this son are descended all the Copes known to belong to our family.

At the time of Oliver's death, his son John was quite young, and it is perhaps owing to this fact that John's descendants possess so little information as they do in regard to Oliver Cope and his family; the private papers and records of the latter probably passing into the hands of the elder children.

I will here give a short account which appears to have been written by Nathan Cope, a grandson of Oliver, about the year 1815:

"The particular time Oliver Cope came from England and settled at Naaman's creek I am not fully capable of informing, yet I believe it must be about the year 1687, or 1688; and the time of his decease was when my father was about ten years of age, which must be about 1701. As to what age when he died I have no account, but I believe he was advanced past the meridian of life. When he came to this country, he had a son named writing his name to the will, was probably owing to physical weakness, or some such cause, as it appears that he wrote his name in the deed which he gave to Robert Pyle, as before mentioned. From the date of the will we can calculate very nearly the time of his death. I have not been able to ascertain the time of Rebecca's death, but suppose it occurred in the year 1728, as on the 16th of May in that year letters of administration on the estate of Rebecca Cope were granted to Hugh Blackwell. The foregoing embraces about all the information I have been able to obtain respecting Oliver Cope, and we will now proceed with his children. There is a tradition that William, after spending the most of his property, went southward, some suppose as far as North Carolina. The first account of him after his father's death is from a surveyor's report made by one Isaac Taylor, who, on the 9th of 12th month, 1702, surveyed one hundred and sixty acres of land for him.

The land was situated in the manor of Rocklands, in the county of New Castle, and the survey was made by virtue of a warrant from the commissioners, directed to Isaac Taylor. Nothing is known of William's family, except that he is supposed to have had a daughter Rebecca, whose name may be found as witness to some old writings as late as 1748. It is also said that she was housekeeper for her uncle John during the time he was a widower.

Oliver's daughter, Elizabeth, is said to have married Hugh Blackwell, and to have had no children.

The only evidence I find, either to prove or disapprove this statement, is contained in the wills of these two persons. On the eighth of third month, 1756, Hugh Blackwell of Bethel, being sick, desired Joseph Cloud to take down in writing, how and to whom he would leave his estate.

He first mentions his "brother John Cope's children," to whom he left 60£. To his "daughter in law" Sarah Babb, 150£. To his "son-in-law" Stephen Foulk's children, 120£. After making several other bequests, amounting to 340£, to various persons who do not appear to have been related to him, he bequeathed the remainder of his property to his wife Elizabeth. The will was proven on the fourth day of the fifth month, 1756.

Elizabeth's will was made some years after, and is as follows:—

"Be it remembered, that I, Elizabeth Blackwell, of the township of Bethel, in the county of Chester, and province of Pennsylvania, widow, being far advanced in years and infirm of body, but of sound and well disposing mind and memory, thanks be to God for the same, and considering the uncertainty of time here, and not knowing how soon it may please the Lord to call me hence, do think fit, while strength is afforded, to make this my last will and testament in manner and form following; that is, first, I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it, and my body I commit to the earth, to be buried in a christian-like and decent manner, at the discretion of my executor hereafter named; and as touching such worldly estate as it hath pleased the Lord to bless me with, I give, devise, and dispose thereof, in manner following, viz.: Imprimus; I order that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and discharged by my executor hereafter named. Item.—I give and bequeath unto my son Stephen Foulk, the sum of five shillings, having already done sufficiently for him in my life-time. Item.—I give and bequeath unto each and every of my grandchildren, the children of my daughter Sarah Babb, deceased, the sum of one shilling; and I will and order, that the aforesaid legacies shall be paid in one year after my decease, by my executor hereafter named, in lawful money of Pennsylvania. Item.—I give and bequeath unto my great-granddaughter, Elizabeth Foulk, daughter of my grandson John Foulk, my case of drawers; to be preserved for her and delivered to her when she arrives at the age of eighteen years, by my executor hereafter named. And lastly, all the rest, residue, and remainder of all my estate, whether real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever nature, kind, degree or quality the same may be, and wheresoever the same may be found; I give, devise, and bequeath unto my grandson John Foulk, and to his heirs and assigns forever; whom I likewise constitute, make and ordain my whole and sole executor, of this my last will and testament, and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke, and disannul all and every other former testaments, wills, legacies, and executors by me at any time heretofore made, willed, or bequeathed; ratifying and confirming this and no other, to be my last will and testament; in witness whereof, I, the said Elizabeth Blackwell, the testatrix, have hereunto set my hand and seal, the fourth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-two. E.

Witnesses. NATHANIEL CLOUD, ROBERT CLOUD, and MARY SCOTT.

The will was proven by due form of law, on the 23d of January, 1765.

It is to be supposed from the above will, that Elizabeth was married to a person by the name of Foulk, previous to her marriage with Hugh Blackwell.

Oliver Cope's daughter Ruth, married Thomas Buffington, at what time is not known, but in 1710, Thomas Buffington and Ruth his wife, signed an indenture conveying to James Whitacre two hundred and sixty acres of land. This was part of a tract of five hundred and twenty-two acres, which Edward Shippen and others, William Penn's land commissioners, patented to Thomas Buffington, of the township of Bradford, and was situated in the forks of Brandywine creek. Thomas' father Richard came from England some years earlier than William Penn, and settled near where the town of Chester now stands, in Delaware county, Pennsylvania. It is stated in a history of Pennsylvania, that Richard's son Richard, was the first child born of English parents in the province of Pennsylvania, being born in 1679. The time of Ruth's death, I have been unable to ascertain. She left a daughter Ruth who is said to have lived with her uncle John Cope until her marriage. Thomas Buffington married a second wife, and died in East Caln township, Chester county, in the month of December, 1739. His children's names, as mentioned in his will, are these: Richard, William, Rebecca Atherton, Ruth Ferree, Betty, Susanna, Rachel James, Anne Morgan, and Thomas Buffington. The name of the second wife was Ann, and she afterwards married a Moses Gilpin, but how many of the above children were hers, is at present unknown. It is only from tradition that Ruth is supposed to be a child of the first wife, however it is so generally understood thus by her descendants as hardly to admit of any doubt as to the fact. She was married fourth month, 10th, 1736, to John Ferree of Lancaster county, at which time her father was living in East Bradford township, Chester county. John Ferree, I am informed, was one of a family of several brothers, and one sister, who, with their widowed mother emigrated from France, in the reign of Louis XIV., during the persecution of the Protestants, and settled in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. John had several children by a former marriage, and by his last wife Ruth, a son and two daughters. Some account of Ruth's descendants will be given in the latter part of this book.

We now come to John Cope, the last of Oliver's children, and the only one whose descendants I have been able to trace to any extent.

The first notice of him, after his father's death, occurs in the following:

"This indenture, made the thirtieth day of the second month, April,* in the eleventh year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady, Ann, Queen of Great Britain, &c., and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twelve; between John Willis, of Thornbury, in the county of Chester and province of Pennsylvania, carpenter, and Esther his wife, of the one part, and John Cope, late of New Castle, but now of Concord township, in the said county of Chester, yeoman, of the other part;—witnesseth, that for and in consideration of the sum of twenty-five pounds, of lawful money of America, to the said John Willis, by the said John Cope, at or before the sealing and delivery of these presents, well and truly paid; the receipt whereof the said John Willis doth hereby acknowledge, and thereof, and of every part thereof, doth acquit and discharge the said John Cope, his heirs, executors and administrators, and every of them, by these presents: they, the said John Willis and Esther his wife, have granted, bargained, sold, aliened, enfeoffed and confirmed, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell, alien, enfeoff and confirm, unto the said John Cope, a certain tract or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the township of Bradford, in the said county: beginning at a corner marked hickory tree, being a corner of Edward Wanton's land, thence north northwest by the Welsh tract, two hundred and five perches, to another hickory; thence west by south, by vacant land, one hundred and sixty perches, to a hickory; thence south southeast, by land of Abiah Taylor, two hundred and five perches, to a post; thence east by north, by other land of the said Edward Wanton, one hundred and sixty perches, to the place of beginning; containing, by computation, two hundred acres, be the same more or less, and is part of a greater tract of land, which Peter Worrall, late of Marple, in the county of Chester, deceased, for valuable considerations, purchased of William Penn, proprietory and governor of the said province; which said Peter Worrall, the said two hundred acres of land, (more or less,) by a conveyance thereof, made for the considerations therein mentioned, conveyed the same to the said John Willis;" &c.

If John Cope was born in 1691, as previously stated in Nathan Cope's account, he would be twenty-one years of age in 1712, and it is probable that his first marriage took place about this time. Who his first wife was, or how long she lived, is not known. There is a curious tradition respecting the purchase of the two hundred acres just mentioned—curious, because one cannot see much foundation for it. It is said that Oliver Cope owned this land in addition to that on Naaman's creek, all of which he bequeathed to his eldest son, with the proviso, that he was to pay to John the sum of twenty-five pounds. John wishing to get the money soon after his father's death, was desired by his brother to take this land instead, which, after much hesitation, he was induced to do, by giving him, in addition, a good horse, saddle and bridle. Twenty-five pounds, or one hundred and twenty-five dollars, was considered at that time a high price for two hundred acres, situated as it was, so far back in the wilderness. One acre of it, at the present time, would sell for more than the original cost of the whole in 1712.

This land is situated a little more than one mile northwest of the town of West Chester, and about the same distance from Brandywine creek, a branch of which runs through the tract, in a southwesterly direction.

An old log house is still standing on it, which is said to have been built in 1712, by John Cope. The logs are mostly poplar, and appear sound enough yet to outlast some of the younger descendants of the builder.

John's second marriage is fully set forth in the following certificate, which shows their manner of proceeding in those times:

"Whereas John Cope, of Bradford, in the County of Chester, and province of Pennsylvania, yeoman, and Charity Evans, daughter of Robert and Jane Jefferis, of the township aforesaid, widow, having, for a considerable time, intended to take each other as husband and wife, and having obtained the consent and allowance of their friends and relations, having also set up a paper at Birmingham meeting-house door, in the eighth month, one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, to answer the law in that case made and provided. Now, for a full determination of their intention, on the thirtieth day of the ninth month, commonly called November, one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, they, the said John Cope and Charity Evans, appeared in a public assembly, met together for that end and purpose, at the house of Robert Jefferis, situate in Bradford township. The said John Cope, taking the said Charity Evans by the hand, did declare as followeth:—'Friends, in the presence of God and this assembly, I take this my friend, Charity Evans, to be my wife, promising, through God's assistance, to be unto her a faithful and loving husband, until it shall please God, by death, to separate us.' And then in the said assembly, the said Charity Evans did declare in like manner as followeth:—'Friends, in the presence of God and this assembly, I take this my friend, John Cope, to be my husband, promising, through God's assistance, to be unto him a loving, obedient and faithful wife, till it shall please God, by death, to separate us.' And the said John Cope and Charity Evans, as a further confirmation thereof, did then and there, to these presents, set their hands, and we whose names are hereunto subscribed, being present, among others, at the solemnization of the said marriage and subscription, have unto these presents subscribed our names, the day and year above written. The said Charity assuming the name of her husband, according to the usual custom."

It will be noticed that the name was written Coope, and not with the present spelling. Oliver's name was never spelled in that manner, though his children and descendants continued to write their names thus for near a century. Why the original change was made is unknown, though it is said that some of the family went to school under an Irish schoolmaster, who told them the name was not spelled right, and accordingly the alteration was made.

The original of this marriage certificate, as also a later one, is in the possession of Alfred Cope, of Philadelphia, who is a great grandson. He also has in his possession a belt worn by John Cope, from which it appears that his circumference was about thirty-six inches.

The children of John and Charity Cope were as follows:—*

	BORN.	DIED.
Hannah,.....	4th mo. 25th, 1724;	10th mo. 10th, 1817.
Samuel, ...	1726;	9th mo 15th, 1817.

Joshua,.....11th mo.	4th, 1736;	1818.
Joseph, ... 8th mo.	1st, 1740;	12th mo. 11th, 1820.

The average of their ages, before any death took place, was over eighty years, thus appearing as if they might have partaken of the time-enduring character of the house in which they were born.

The time of Charity's death is not recorded, but it must have occurred as early as 1746 or 1747, for on the 23rd of 12th month, 1748, John was married to Elizabeth Fisher, widow of Thomas Fisher, of East Caln

* According to one account there appears to have been another daughter, the first child, who lived only to the age of three or four years. It is somewhat singular that this should not have been mentioned in the account given by one of those children. See near the commencement.

township. There were no children by this last marriage, and the time of Elizabeth's death is not known. John was a member of Bradford monthly meeting of Friends, from the time it was established in 1737, until his death.

The following is a copy of his last will:—

I, John Coope, of the township of East Bradford, in the county of Chester, in the province of Pennsylvania, yeoman, being in a good degree of bodily health, and of sound and of well-disposing mind and memory, thanks be humbly offered to God for the same, with all other his manifold mercies bestowed upon me, being sensible of the uncertainty of my time to sojourn in this transitory world, and willing to settle my concerns in this world after the best manner I am able, while health and strength is continued, do make this my last will and testament in manner following: And first I desire aid of my Heavenly Creator, through my blessed Lord and Redeemer Christ Jesus, most humbly and heartily to resign my spirit unto God that gave it, whensoever it may please him to call for my departure out of this world, and my body to be buried in decent manner at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named, and as an exemplary caution against needless ostentation, I will, that my body be interred in a plain coffin, made of oak or poplar wood, in the natural color, and that it may not be wrapped in new or costly linen or muslin. Also, I will that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be duly paid and discharged, and as to the residue of my temporal estate which it hath pleased God to bestow upon me, I leave and dispose of the same as followeth, viz:— First. I give and bequeath unto my son Samuel Coope, the sum of five shillings current money of the said province, added unto the messuage, plantation and tract of land, which I have conveyed to him, his heirs and assigns. Also, I give and bequeath unto my son John

Coope, the sum of ten pounds of the like money, added to what I have already given him. Also, I give and devise unto my son Nathan Coope, his heirs and assigns, forever, all that my messuage, plantation and tract of land, whereon I now live, situate in the said township of East Bradford; being butted and bounded as followeth, viz.: Beginning at a hickory, being a corner of Jonathan Parke's land, and by the same land, south, south east, two hundred and five perches to a post; thence east by north, by Nathan Hoopes' land, eighty-four perches, to a corner of my son Samuel Coope's land, and by the same land, north, north west, two hundred and five perches, to a corner; thence west by south, eighty-four perches, to the place of beginning; containing one hundred acres be the same more or less, together with all and singular, the buildings, orchards, gardens, meadows, ways, woods, waters, water courses, rights, liberties, privileges, improvements, hereditaments, and appurtenances, whatsoever thereunto belonging, or in any way appertaining. Also, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Hannah, the wife of John Carter, the sum of twenty shillings of the like lawful money aforesaid, added unto the portion which I have given unto her. Also, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mary, the sum of ten pounds of lawful money of the said province, and one feather bed and its bedding and furniture, and one case of drawers which are already made, and a plush side saddle which she usually rides on. Also, I give and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate, real and personal, goods, chattels, and effects, whatsoever, and wheresoever found, the part whereof that's real estate, is a lot of ground with a small house thereon, in the city of Philadelphia, in the said province, situated on the north side of Arch or Mulberry street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, and bounded by a lot on one side that was formerly Anthony Morris', and on the other side by a lot that was formerly Anthony Wilkinson's, and contains twenty-two feet and four inches in front, and three hundred and six feet back, with all and singular, the appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in any way appertaining, to my three youngest sons, to wit, Caleb, Joshua, and Joseph Coope, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns forever, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike Also, I do nominate, constitute, and appoint my son Joseph and my son-in-law John Carter, to be joint executors of this my last will and testament, and lastly, I do hereby declare to be null and void, all former and other wills and testaments, by me made in word or writing, and declare this only to be my last will and testament, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this sixth day of the seventh month, called July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, seven hundred and sixty-nine.

JOHN COOPE.

Witnesses { HUMPHREY MARSHALL, JOHN BATTIN, JAMES KENNY.

This will was proven on the 12th of March, 1773.

According to one of the conditions of sale, each purchaser of land from William Penn, was entitled to a lot of ground in the City of Philadelphia, in size proportioned to the quantity of land purchased. This lot which John owned, may have been one which Oliver Cope came in possession of in this manner.

John Cope's daughter Hannah was married on the 10th of 2d month, 1746, to John Carter, son of George and Elizabeth Carter, of East Bradford, Chester Co., Pa.

John was born 11th mo. 26th, 1723, and died 6th mo. 14th, 1770.

They settled in the southern part of East Bradford Township (now Birmingham), near where the battle of Brandywine was fought, in 1777.

Their children were as follows:

John removed to Lancaster County, and, at the time of his second marriage, was residing in Salsbury Township. His exact residence for several years after is unknown, but in the 10th month, 1784, he removed to Fayette Co., Pa., and settled where his grandson, Amos Cope, now resides.

Nathan Cope was married, 12th month 7th, 1758, to Amy Bane, daughter of Nathan Bane, of Goshen Township, Chester Co. She died 10th mo. 1st. 1799. They settled on the western half of his father's farm, at the homestead. Their children were as follows:

Caleb removed to the town of Lancaster, Pa., in 1761, where he continued to reside for many years, but finally ended his days in Philadelphia, where three of his sons were settled.

"MAJOR ANDRE, (when Captain Andre,) was captured at St. Johns, Upper Canada, by Gen'l. Montgomery, on the 3rd of November, 1775, and with other British officers sent to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, as a prisoner of war."

Caleb Cope was then residing in that place, and filling the office of a burgess. He was a member of the society of Friends, a non-combatant of course, and more disposed to yield to the pretensions of the British Government than to engage in a bloody war—believing that there would still be remaining blessings enough to be thankful for.

It was under these circumstances that he offered the prisoners a shelter under his roof, when it seemed impossible for them to obtain accommodation elsewhere.

This act required the exercise of no little moral courage, as the populace were greatly excited against the prisoners, and soon gave evidence of their hostility by destroying every window in the house of their generous benefactor; an act of violence, however, which was fully redeemed in after years, when the people of Lancaster liberally assisted the unfortunate owner in the reconstruction of his dwelling which had been accidently destroyed by fire.

Among the children of Andre's benevolent host, there was one named John, then aged about 13 years, in whom the former felt deeply interested. He had displayed a remarkable talent for drawing as the letters of Andre show.

This boy was the brother of Thomas P. Cope, Israel Cope, and Jasper Cope, and the father of Herman Cope, in whose possession the following letters* and picture now are. All the brothers, including a fourth one named William, were then living under the same roof with Andre, and the elder ones were frequently entertained by him in games of marbles, and other youthful sports.

Whilst Andre was a prisoner at Lancaster, he proposed to the father of his "young disciple," as he called the boy-artist, to take the latter to England and educate him at his own expense for the profession of a painter."—American Historical and Literary curiosities. John Jay Smith, 1860.

Joshua Cope, the twin brother to Caleb, married Jane Brown, and removed to Frederick County Virginia, it is supposed about the year 1775.

Their children were ten in number, viz:—

* The letters referred to are four in number, and were written to Caleb Cope by John Andre in the year 1776. Three of them were dated at Carlisle, and the fourth at Reading, Pa. The picture also mentioned, is a sketch by Andre of some locality, the name of which is not remembered.

Having arrived at this point, we will now make a recapitulation, and proceed in a different manner. The dates of births, deaths, &c., will be given in the order of year, month, and day, and the names numbered, commencing with Oliver Cope. Each generation will be gone through in regular order, the number of which, as given at the head of the page, will refer to the children, and not to the heads of the families on that page.

The names of all who are known to be married, will be carried forward to the next generation, and may be found by the numbers, as the same name will continue to have the same number. All of the family known to be deceased will be so stated, either by date or otherwise. The names of the children will follow an account of their parents' marriage, &c., and though not always stated, yet the dates in the first column to the right of the children's names, are births, and in the second, deaths, if any have occurred.

In order to distinguish between the different families, a single asterisk (*) will separate the families of brothers and sisters, and for each remove from a common stock, an additional asterisk will intervene. Thus, between the families of brothers and sisters,—one; first cousins,—two; second cousins,—three and so on.

With these remarks it is hoped that any person may be enabled to understand what follows, in which it seemed necessary to abbreviate to some extent.

CONCLUSION.

I am inclined to think, from the spelling and pronunciation of Cope, that it is a German name, and the more so from the fact, that there have been many Copes among the Germans. About the year 1750, there was a family residing in Franconia Township, Philadelphia, (now Montgomery) County, Pennsylvania, consisting of Yost Cope, and Dorothy, his wife, with their children, John Adam, Abraham, John Nicholas, John, and Catharine.

Some of these children settled in Prince George's County, Maryland; and there is now a Thomas P. Copes in Accomac County, Virginia, who is perhaps a descendant, though he informs that his great grandfather came from England.

He, as well as many now living in Philadelphia, writes the name with an additional s, making it Copes. There was also a Godfrey Cope, of the latter place, well remembered by many in this neighborhood, who is said to have come from Germany, and changed the spelling of his name—more than the pronunciation, perhaps—in order to make it Cope.

Some of the German Copes probably emigrated to England at an early date. From a work, entitled, Brown's Domestic Architecture, London, 1842, I have obtained the following notices. In an article on Chimney Shafts, it says:—"The clustering of the shafts did not wholly disappear at the commencement of the Stuarts, as we see in Holland House, at Kensington, built by Sir Walter Cope, in 1607, during the reign of James I.," &c., &c.

"The Cope family are very ancient: Sir Anthony Cope, of Hanwell, in Oxfordshire, was created a baronet, 29th June, 1611. The only survivor of the family, Sir John Cope, at whose death the title becomes extinct, now resides at Bramshill, in Hampshire, the most princely mansion of the Stuart style in the Kingdom. It was intended as a residence for the accomplished Prince Henry Frederick, eldest son of James I."

In the Gleanings of New England History, &c., occurs the following:—"London, 17th June, 1635. William Cope, aged 26, and Richard Cope, aged 24, embarked for New England in the bark Blessing, Joseph Lecester, Master." It appears they changed the name to Copp, soon after their arrival in America, for in June, 1640, William Copp was admitted a member of the First Church in Boston. My informant on this matter was Samuel Copp, then residing (in 1859) at Mystic, Connecticut. He was born 1787, and gives his descent as follows:

William,	the settler,			born 1609.
David,	Elder,	First Church,	Boston,	" 1635.
Jonathan,	Deacon,	Second "	New London,	" 1664.
Jonathan,		of First "	Stonington,	" 1694.
Samuel,	Deacon,	" "	"	" 1743.

Samuel Copp, Jr., son of the latter, was born 1816. He has a son, Samuel Osborn Copp, born in 1850. Joseph Copp, a son of the second Jonathan above, had a daughter, Catharine, who married Jasper Morgan, and is the mother of Edwin D. Morgan, the present Governor of New York.

At an Orphans' Court, held at Philadelphia, March 25th, 1730, "William Dean produced a receipt for twelve pounds, ten shillings, paid by Elizabeth Cope, of Wiltshire, (widow,) which entitles said Dean to his share of the dividend of the stock aforesaid allowed."

Oliver Cope came from Wiltshire, and Elizabeth's husband may have been a relative. The meaning of the above transaction is not understood. As far as known, the Copes in England resided in the Southern counties, but by this time they may have spread nearly all over the Island. Those of the family in this country, who have been there, found the Copes very numerous in some sections.

On the 21st of September, 1745, General Sir John Cope commanded the King's troops in the battle with the Pretender, at Preston Pans, and was defeated. The enemy, under cover of the night, gained, unobserved, a near position, and at daylight commenced battle, before Sir John had time to arrange his forces. The consequence was a total rout. Sir John is severely ridiculed in several Scotch songs, one of which runs thus:

Cope sent a challenge from Dunbar,
Saying, Sir, come fight me, if you daur,
If it be not by the chance of war,
I'll catch you all in the morning.

Charlie look'd the letter upon,
He drew his sword the scabbard from,
Saying, "Follow me, my merry men,
And we'll visit Cope in the morning.

"My merry men, come follow me,
For now's the time I'll let you see,
What a happy nation this will be,
And we'll visit Cope in the morning."

'Tis Coppie, are you waking yet?
Or are you sleeping? I would wit;
'Tis a wonder when your drums do beat,
It wakens na you in the morning.

The Highland men came down the loan,
With sword and target in their hand,
They took the dawning by the end,
And they visited Cope in the morning.

For all their bombs, and bomb-grenades,
O when they saw the Highland lads,
They shook wi' fear, like awkward squads,
And scour'd awa in the morning.

For all their bombs, and their bomb-shells,
When they saw the lads o' the hills,
They took to their heels like frightened wolves,
Pursued by the clans in the morning.

The Highland men, with loud huzza,
Cried, Johnnie Cope, are you quite awa?
O bide a wee, and shake a paw,
And we'll give you a merry morning.

When Coppie went to Haddington,
They asked him where were all his men;
O, pox take me, if I do ken,
For I left them all in the morning.

In an account of the Pim family, in Ireland, it is stated that Tobias Pim was married in 1694, to Susanna, daughter of Robert and Mary Cope, of Montrath, in Ireland, which proves that some of the Copes had settled in that country at an early date.

The foregoing notices are such as I have chanced to meet with, never having taken any trouble to obtain them. I suppose by going to England, a person might ascertain much in regard to our family prior to Oliver.

THE END.

OMISSION.

The following record was accidentally omitted at the proper time and place, which should have been page 114.

No. 326. Emma Cope was married 1834, 10, to Charles Yarnall. They reside in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
